PART 1 – TRANSACTION FEES AND TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1 Fees

1.1 The following fees are payable by you to us under these Transaction Terms.

Fee type: Service Fee

Amount: You agree to pay us the Service Fee amount which we disclose to you prior to you giving us an Instruction. The Service Fee is payable in addition to the Amount each time you give us an Instruction

Fee type: ---

Amount: ---

Fee type: Credit card payment processing fee

Amount: You agree to pay us a credit card payment processing fee which is a % of each Australian dollar amount that is debited to your Payment Instrument by us under these Transaction Terms when that Payment Instrument is a credit card. We tell you this % amount prior to you giving us an Instruction, payable in addition to the Amount each time you give us an Instruction.

Fee type: Third party fees

Amount: The services of Payment Service Providers may also be used to provide our Services. In many cases, these Payment Service Providers will impose payment or handling fees and charges and are beyond our control. Remitly will not be liable for any amount deducted by, or payable to, a Payment Service Provider involved in carrying out a Transaction. Fees and charges imposed by Payment Service Providers may be deducted from amounts transferred to the Recipient. If this occurs, this means that the Recipient will receive less than the Amount. We will give you notice of any third-party fees we are aware of that will be deducted and the amount that the Recipient will ultimately receive.

Fee type: Insufficient fund fee

Amount: If your financial institution charges us a fee as a result of you having insufficient funds available through your Payment Instrument to debit the Amount and any fees and charges in relation to a Transaction or otherwise payable under these Transaction Terms you agree to reimburse us for the amount of that fee.

Fee type: Chargeback fee

Amount: If you authorise us to debit a Payment Instrument that you do not have authority to use or you challenge a legitimate Transaction with your financial institution, and as a result we are charged a chargeback fee by the financial institution associated with the Payment Instrument, you agree to reimburse us for the amount of that fee.

Fee type: Card Payment Authorisation Fee

Amount: If your nominated Payment Instrument for the Transaction is a credit or debit card, You agree to pay us a small fee of $0.01 to allow us to authorise your card payment to us. This fee is temporary and will be refunded once your card has been authorised.

However, we will not be able to make a refund in such a manner if the Recipient has claimed or been credited with the funds you have sent, either through cash pick up, home delivery or bank account deposit (as the case may be).

Upon receiving your request to cancel a Transaction we may confirm with our Payment Service Providers to determine if the Transaction was cancelled prior to issuing you with a refund.
